Schmuki conducts outreach in Ontario

September 5, 2016

Jeff Schmuki, co-founder of the art collaborative PlantBot Genetics, conducted public outreach and insect surveys in Ontario, Canada this summer. Teaming up with the community partner, Entomica of Sault Ste Marie Ontario, the public was assisted in capture of insects while learning about bee decline and the importance of pollinators through the combination of art and science. His visit was documented by sootoday.com.
